Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WHOZIT)

The newly organized community band gave its first public concert on Sunday afternoon in City Hall park before a nice crowd, who showed their appreciation for the efforts put forth by these young musicians, who, on this first performance show signs of developing into a high class concert orchestra... these musicians and their director, Mr. Wimberly, should be complimented and deserve the cooperation of the entire community... summer began officially three minutes after noon Tuesday, but if we are any judge of weather, it has been here for the past month and shows signs of remaining for quite a spell... June is the month of weddings, and Bay St. Louis and Hancock county have been no exception judging from the number of marriages which have taken place recently... the city commission council was reported, unofficially, this week to have appointed a new chief of police to replace the present chief, Frank Hobbs, said appointment to become effective July 1, but no official announcement has been made from the city hall... the boat races on last Sunday drew quite a number of entries and attracted a nice crowd, which all the more emphasizes the need of the new yacht club and building now in course of construction and should spur those in charge to do everything in their power to rush the work for an early completion of their plans... make your plans now to attend the Church Fair of Our Lady of the Gulf church, which will be held on Saturday and Sunday, July 9th and 10th, on the church grounds... you will be able to get everything from a sandwich to a full dinner, so don't forget to be there... the city school board of trustees are advertising for bids for roof and other repairs on the R. W. Webb school, located on Third St., to be opened at their next regular meeting on June 28... The Mayor has a notice in this issue calling on all those interested in the raising of strawberries in this section, which should meet with ready response, as this is an industry which could prove worthwhile and profitable to our people... The Mayor is also asking for clay samples to present to parties interested in starting a ceramic tile business in this locality, so if you have any samples be sure to bring them to City Hall, as it might prove to your advantage.

—Misses Audrey Poolson, Anna Mae Benigno and Julie Elliott, having completed the three year nurses' course at Hotel Dieu, returned to their respective homes on Sunday for a vacation.

—Bay St. Louis welcomes Rev. H. Bufkin Oliver again as pastor of the Main Street Methodist church. He was reappointed at the recent annual conference of the Methodist church held at Gulfport. His own flock and many others are glad to have the Oliver family here again.

Mrs. McDonald, member of the Vanderbilt university chapter of A. O. P. and past national president of the sorority, will leave from Bay St. Louis with Mr. McDonald.

Miss Kenney will attend the convention as a representative of the A. O. P. chapter at Louisiana State university, in which she holds the office of vice-president. A graduate of St. Joseph Academy and Gulf Park college, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kenney.

Miss Kittrell, the granddaughter of Mrs. W. A. McDonald, is a member of the chapter at Randolph-Macon college where she received her bachelor of sciences degree. She has just received her masters degree from the University of Mississippi.

133 CHAPTERS REPRESENTED

The convention will be attended by delegates from 49 active and 34 alumnae chapters of Alpha Omicron Pi throughout the United States and Canada. Mrs. Verne Willson McKinney of Los Angeles, national president, will preside over the sessions.

BAY SPLITS TWIN BILL WITH HATTIESBURG; PURVIS IS NEXT

The Bay St. Louis Ball club will meet a semi-pro team from Purvis in a double-header Sunday at 2 p. m. The game will be played at Morreale's ball park.

The Bay St. Louis Ball club split a doubleheader Sunday with the Hattiesburg Independents in Hattiesburg.

Charles Ladner hurled the local boys to a 5-4 victory in a hardfought second game after Pitcher Buddy Pitato bowed to the Independents in the initial tilt, 7-1.

For Hattiesburg the winning pitcher was Gates, the losing pitcher, Nicholson.

Pitato's loss was the result of steady consistent play on the part of the Independents. The local boys committed three errors.

In the last game of the day, Ladner drew some criticism from the Hattiesburg fans who complained he took too much time between his pitches. Hattiesburg batters took up the complaint and for a while there was an off-the-mound-out-the-box session. The umpire finally arbitrated a peaceful settlement.

The days' only anxious moments came in the last game, also. In the closing stanza the Bay boys led by a score of 5-2. With one man out, the second batter for Hattiesburg took a single. The next man up, Davenport, Hattiesburg's second baseman, clouted one over the right field fence, to tighten up the tally, 5-4. The following two batters, however, were put away, and the final game ended in victory for the Bay club.

CALL STRAWBERRY GROWERS MEETING FOR FRIDAY NIGHT

A meeting of all strawberry growers of this area is scheduled for Tuesday, June 28 at 7:30 p. m., according to Mayor Warren Carver. The meeting will be held at the Courthouse.

"This meeting is not only for big growers who speak in terms of 'acres' of strawberries, but for those interested in 'back yard' plots, as well," the Mayor said.

Last week a delegation from Bay St. Louis attended such a meeting of strawberry growers in Long Beach. Those attending were Mr. R. Terrell Perkins, Mr. Chiniche, and Mayor Carver.

Some 150 prospective growers were present. Speakers at the meeting included the president of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce; the Harrison county agent; Eddie Albrook, owner of Albrook Fisheries, Inc. of Gulfport; and the U. S. agriculture department entomologist.

Many people from Bay St. Louis, Waveland, Clermont Harbor, Lakeshore and other sections of the county are expected to attend the Tuesday meeting.

active chapters send boxes of clothing to the mountain people, and special boxes of toys and gifts are sent during the holiday season. Funds contributed by the sorority provide medical aid, transportation to hospitals and other necessities, such as the jeep recently purchased by A. O. P. for the use of the social service secretary in her travels through the county.

A child care and feeding center, accomplished under the auspices of the Friends Service committee, is maintained by Alpha Omicron Pi at St. Nazaire, France. To date more than $15,000 has been contributed by the sorority for philanthropic projects.

SIGHTSEEING PLANNED

The convention will be highlighted by the election of officers and their installation on the closing day in conjunction with the presentation of awards for achievements and scholarships. Other special events will include an alumnae dinner, Panhellenic supper, undergraduate day, fraternity day and the final banquet. A luncheon luncheon is planned as a tribute to members of the Alpha Omicron Pi who are national figures in current events.

Sightseeing trips will be conducted for delegates by the members of the Boston alumnae chapter and the active chapters at Tufts college, Mass.; University of Toronto; McGill university at Montreal; and the University of Maine, who are acting as convention hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Miss Kenney and Miss Kittrell will tour the east coast of the United States before returning to Bay St. Louis.

During the three-day study sessions members of the association heard lectures by nationally prominent bankers from New York, Washington, D. C., and St. Louis, and from various Mississippi banks.

Approximately 125 banking officials were present at the conference.

Alcine Saucier Is Named City Chief Of Police

State Auditor Files Suit Against Former County Board Members

State Auditor Carl N. Craig filed suit last week against members of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors who served between Jan. 1, 1944 and Dec. 31, 1947, and against the Standard Accident Insurance Co. of Detroit, holders of bonds on the officials being sued.

Named in the suit were John B. Wheat, Charles B. Murphy, Johnson S. Shaw and Ed. P. Orte. The suit was filed in the Hancock County chancery court.

The auditor alleges that his office made an examination of the fiscal affairs of Hancock County for a period of from Oct. 1, 1946 to Sept. 30, 1947, and that such examination disclosed the following:

That on April 8, 1946, Hancock county received from the treasurer of the state of Mississippi, under the provisions of House bill 36 of the 1946 session of the Mississippi legislature, being chapter 219 of the laws of 1946, the sum of $53,305.40, which was deposited in the county depository to the credit of the highway fund by the chancery clerk.

NOTICE OF APPROPRIATIONS

Under the provisions of Chapter 219 of the laws of 1946, the State auditor charges, it was the duty of the board of supervisors of each county at its next regular or special meeting after receiving notice of the amount of money appropriated to the county to spread upon the minutes of such meeting of the roads or bridges selected by them to be constructed or improved in their respective districts or beats.

Pursuant to this requirement, the board of supervisors at their regular December, 1946 meeting entered on their minutes an order designating the following roads to be constructed or improved out of said funds: Ansley road, Beat 1; Old Nicholson road, Beat 2; White Cypress road, Standard road, Dedaux road, and Rocky Hill road, Beat 3; Fenton Sand Hill road, Beat 4; and Lakeshore road, Beat 5.

INSUFFICIENT EQUIPMENT

It is further alleged in the bill of complaint that Chapter 219 laws of 1946 provided for the construction of all projects under the terms of the provisions of the act be done by contract, excepting that counties having sufficient equipment and labor might build the roads and bridges without the letting of contracts and pay for the labor and material therefore out of any funds appropriated by the legislature, and that Hancock County did not have sufficient equipment and labor for this work. The act, it is alleged, further provided that the Board of Supervisors could not expend any of said funds for machinery, equipment or tools.

The suit is for the sum of $37,187.50 which was paid to Chester C. Lee for labor, equipment and material used in the rebuilding and reconstruction of the Kiln-Picayune road; the Leetown-Anner road and the Caesar-Necaise Crossing road from said funds, and which roads were not designated by the Board in their order on their minutes for the money to be spent on.

The amount sued for covers the following allowances to Chester C. Lee for furnishing, loading, hauling, and placing on the roads mentioned above, 18,595 cubic yards of gravel.

OCTOBER TERM 1946

Claim No. 228—26 days drag line hire at $90.00 per day—$2340.00.

Claim No. 229—3880 yards gravel at 20 per yard—$776.00.

Claim No. 230—15 trucks and drivers for 26 days at $12.00 each per day—$4680.00.

NOVEMBER TERM 1946

Claim No. 363—15 trucks and drivers for 26 days at $15.45 per day—$6025.00.

Claim No. 366—26 days drag line hire at $126.00 per day—$3280.00.

Claim No. 371—5152 yards gravel at 20 per yard—$1030.63.

DECEMBER TERM 1946

Claim 643—20 days drag line hire at $148.00 per day—$2960.00.

Claim No. 644 for 10 trucks for 20 days at $15.30 each $3060.00.

Claim No. 645—for 3364 yards of gravel at 20 per yard—$672.80.

JANUARY 1947 TERM

Claim No. 855—for 274 yards gravel at 20 per yard—$54.80.

Claim No. 856—12 days drag line hire at $41.10 per day—$493.20.

Claim No. 891—21 trucks and drivers for 12 days at $35.00 each per day—$820.00.

Claim No. 892—for 5924 yards of gravel at 20 per yard—$11848.00.

Claim No. 893—for 12 days drag line hire at $94.35 per day—$1180.20.

NECAISE NOT NAMED

The auditor does not allege that the work was not done on these particular roads. The allegation is that the board did not have the authority to do it in the manner in which it was done and that they had to first designate the roads. The suit is based on the allegation that the appropriations mentioned above were not authorized by law and for objects not authorized by law, and that no one of the members of the Board recorded their vote against any of said appropriations and are therefore each of them liable for the entire sum so appropriated.

Former supervisor Lander Necaise was not made a party to the suit for the reason that he is out of the state and could not be served with personal process.

CHAPEL OF THE CROSS OFFERS ROMANTIC STORY

On a tree-shaded hill beside a winding country road in Madison County less than 20 miles north of Jackson stands the Chapel Of The Cross, a beautiful old plantation structure whose ivy-clad walls and churchyard cemetery support a romantic story so touching that it has inspired stories in publications the nation over and draws the more adventurous travelers from near and far.

The history of the Chapel Of The Cross is also the tragic story of the Bride of Annandale.

When John Johnstone, of a family from Annandale, Scotland came to this country in 1830 he built in the wilderness the first Annandale, a log house for his wife and daughter. Later, when fortune had blessed him, Johnstone built another home, which he named Ingleside. However, the hardy Scot preferred his original home and continued to live there until his death in 1848.

Johnstone's widow decided upon a finer Annandale, but undertook the building of a chapel before she started her new home, using brick and slave labor from her own plantation. Plans for the Gothic style structure were drawn by an English architect named Wells.

The Chapel Of The Cross was soon completed and consecrated in 1853 as a memorial to her beloved husband.

Christmas of 1855 found Mrs. Johnstone and her beautiful daughter, Helen, visiting at Ingleside while the new Annandale was under construction.

It was a festive season with guests coming to Ingleside for the holidays. Among them was a handsome young man, Henry, called Vick, son of the founder of Vicksburg.

Helen and young Vick were immediately attracted to each other and a long and happy courtship followed. Finally they set the date for their wedding on May 21, 1856, the ceremony to be held in the Chapel Of The Cross.

In the days that followed Helen and her mother were happily preparing for the wedding. Young Vick meantime had journeyed to New Orleans to make purchases for the wedding and to outfit his new home.

Four days before the wedding date Vick became involved in an argument in the port city and was challenged to a duel. Despite a promise he had made to Helen never to kill a man, Henry drew on the dueling ground at the appointed hour.

In the grey New Orleans dawn Helen's lover paced off the count, turned and fired his shot into the air over his opponent's head, thereby keeping a promise to his sweetheart which cost him his life.

Vick's body was returned to a saddened Annandale for burial in the graveyard of the Chapel Of The Cross. The family was filled with grief for the young bridegroom and grieved for the bride. Work on the great house was sus-ended while the Johnstones were in mourning.

The Chapel of the Cross, around which the romantic story of the Bride of Annandale revolves, is located near Madison, a few miles off U. S. Highway 51 north of Jackson. The graveyard where Henry Vick is buried is behind the church. The Chapel is one of Mississippi's many historic and scenic attractions which the Travel Department of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board is bringing to the attention of prospective tourists.

Mrs. Johnstone and the heart-broken Helen left Annandale after the funeral and traveled in Europe for some time.

Helen later met and married a minister, Dr. George Harris, who had come to serve the Chapel. But the story is that Helen never gave her heart to her husband, remaining always the bride of a ghost, the sweetheart of Henry Vick.

The Chapel Of The Cross stands today in a grove of hickory and oak trees, a simple and dignified structure of brick over which time has bestowed a mellow, hallowed atmosphere.

The arched main entrance is placed unobtrusively on the side; the double wooden doors were fastened with an iron latch, but this is never used today, and visitors are given opportunity to wander inside the restful, peaceful sanctuary.

The dim interior with its long narrow windows, arched wooden trusses and stone floor is decorated with charm and simplicity. There is a stone baptismal font and the altar is of carved redwood, imported from Europe.

Adjoining the Chapel on each side and at the rear is the churchyard in which the graves are grouped in family plots. Among them, close to the buttressed walls of the Chapel, in the grave of Henry Creve Coeur, marked by a rustic stone cross.

Legend has it that the Bride of Annandale to this day visits the grave of her lover in the lonely churchyard at the Chapel Of The Cross.

Annandale was never finished, although descendants of the family occupied it until it burned in 1926. During the War Between the States it was stripped for the Confederate cause. The carpets were cut into soldiers' blankets; the bronze and brass pieces were melted and sent to foundries to be cast into cannon; the Johnstone women's silk dresses were made into battle banners, and the imported linens were torn into strips for bandages. In the later years of the war General Sherman and his staff made the home their headquarters.

REMOVE THE RACKETS

There are many in Bay St. Louis who would like to see the city grow and prosper, and take its place among the more progressive and prosperous localities, as Mayor Carver said, it would when the proper spirit of cooperation and brotherly love comes into existence in our midst.

We do not doubt that our young Mayor has the welfare of his city at heart. He started off in the right direction prior to his induction into office, and if he had followed the dictates of his conscience and not allowed himself to be misled by a group of selfish, unscrupulous racketeers, he would have afforded the outstanding leadership which is so necessary to help build our city.

It is not too late or him to make amends—stubbornness and a belligerent attitude can gain nothing for him personally nor will it redound to the good of his people or his city. A trait of real manhood shows in the man who will admit the error of his ways, and seek to cure it.

Opportunity for service has been knocking at the Mayor's door; apparently he does not want to heed the call. Even though his people have spoken with a loud voice, as he so stated. He has turned a deaf ear to their directive, so effectively expressed in the election of June 4.

To have cooperation the disturbing elements who operate the rackets and who seek to destroy one another politically and economically at every opportunity must be removed from their control.

Mr. Mayor, the removal of the slot machines is the cure—your people have spoken, and if you were sincere in your statement, the opportunity is ever present for you to render a service, have full cooperation and regain your popularity.

It's up to you—What will your answer be?

Social Betting Is A Blunder If Not Done Moderately

Moderate betting on golf, bridge and such games can be an excellent way to relax. But for those who play for stakes beyond their means, such games become harrowing ordeals which can wreck lives and marriages.

Under the title: "We Can't Afford Social Gambling," the July issue of Good Housekeeping magazine chides husbands and wives who discuss the matter bitterly in private, but are too embarrassed to take a stand in the presence of friends.

Stakes become so high that we now play cards and other games with demonic determination," says the author. "It's a serious matter when you drop a week's allowance on a mahjong game or your next-door neighbor loses fifty dollars in a single poker session."

The article explains that gambling is a natural instinct of all normal people, and that it satisfies the positive attraction for danger that is present in most human beings. Pointing out that in social gambling the important factor is the game, and not the money, the author adds, "When betting reaches a level at which 'interest' runs a week second to mental anguish, the game is no longer social."

As a way out of the social gambling dilemma, the article suggests that a couple should be completely honest about their circumstances and inability to play for high stakes. "More often than not," says the author, "you'll find that your refusal to play for more than you can afford will be welcomed and admired by others, who for lack of courage, have not voiced their objections."

Another suggested solution is a "kitty" into which all winnings go—eventually to pay for theater tickets, dinners, etc., for all the players.

GEE WHIZ!

If the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanton, of Carmel, California, don't develop modern minds, it won't be the fault of their parents. Their bedroom floors are made of concrete—allowing them to roller-skate to bed, and each has an "inter com" microphone alongside his pillow for instant communication with Mom and Dad. Other wonders of the Stanton home are pictured on 32 pages of the July House Beautiful.

SOUTHERN SCHEDULES GAME WITH McMURRY

Hattiesburg, Miss.—There will be a meeting of champions in Faulkner Stadium on October 8 when Mississippi Southern's '49 football squad squares off with the McMurry Indians of Abilene, Texas.

Number one team in the rugged Texas conference last fall, the Indians are already pointing for their first invasion of Mississippi soil in an effort to gain prestige at the expense of Southerners, Gulf States conference kinsmen in '48.

And if reports from deep in the heart of Texas are true, Coach Thad Vann's crew will have their hands full. The Texas reports rate the McMurry gridirers among the best of the many outstanding "small college" football teams in the Southwest.

Little All-American Brad Rowland, 200 pound triple-threat who paced the Indians to their loop crown last year, is slated to lead the attack against the Southerners. Rowland's 1948 record included gaining 1164 yards rushing to rank 4th in the nation, adding enough yardage passing to rank 6th in total offense, and averaging 41.2 yards punting to earn

Mississippi Southern Names New Director For Athletic Publicity

Hattiesburg, Miss.—Jack Moore of Starkville, Miss., former Editor of the McComb Daily Journal, has been appointed director of athletic publicity at Mississippi Southern college according to an announcement by Athletic Director Reed Green.

"The employment of a full-time man to handle our athletic publicity," Green stated, "is in keeping with the rapidly expanding intercollegiate athletic program at Mississippi Southern."

The Southerner's new sports publicist attended Mississippi State college after graduation from Central high school of Jackson. While at State he served as director of sports publicity for two years.

A former Marine Corps officer who served in the South Pacific, Moore comes to Southern from Gulfport where he had been employed by the Mississippi National Guard.

the 9th spot in that department.

Clearing his way for Rowland and other Indian backs in the Southern tussle will be a veteran forward wall which is reported to average more than 210 pounds from end to end.

John Bell, contractor for the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, was guest speaker at the Bay St. Louis Rotary club Wednesday at Hotel Reed. ### JOHN BELL, JR., TAKES 2ND. CONSECUTIVE WIN IN LIGHTENING SERIES

John Bell, Jr. won his second consecutive victory in the Pass Christian lightning class race series Sunday. Herbert Hanson of Pass Christian placed second and Sonny Wolfe third.

A fourth boat sailed by Robert Camors dropped out on the first leg of the run when his rudder and tiller became disconnected.

Bell took the lead as the sailors rounded the committee boat at the start in front of the Bay-Waveland Yacht club site, and stayed ahead all the way. Hanson and Camors ran for second place on the first leg but when Camors dropped out Wolfe pulled up into the second position. He was soon overtaken by Hanson, however.

WSCS Discusses Africa's Needs

Mrs. S. J. Mauffray, newly elected president of the Womens Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church, presided over the meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois, Tuesday, June 21.

Mrs. J. D. Vaughn elucidated on the meaning of light in giving the devotional, "In the Light That has Shined in the Darkness." Mrs. Vaughn said "the light calls the children in from the gathering shadows as evening comes; it gives light, warmth, nourishment, protection to the family and welcomes the wayfarer." Mrs. Vaughn continued, "We need the quiet steady light of Christian fires in Africa; we need the glowing fires of Christian schools and churches."

The topic of the program, led by Mrs. N. C. Erwin, was "Darkness Turns to Dawn in Africa." Mrs. Erwin gave some facts on the size, location, area and population of what she termed the "blackman's vast and mysterious continent."

Others participating in the program were Mrs. Elizabeth Jenkins and Mrs. D. T. Ryce.

The closing thought given was that "the women of Central Africa need three things from the women of America. First, they need the interest and prayers of each one as they come into the life of our great church; second, the work among them needs gifts of money that come through the woman's division and Church Extension; and last, at present they need more young Christian women from America. These must be well-trained nurses, teachers, social workers, who must have love and understanding to guide others into the light by which the nations must walk if we are to have love and peace in the world."

The business session followed the program and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames Bourgeois, George Schilling, and C. M. Shipp, and Miss May H. Edwards. Mrs. Bourgeois was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Rogers.

One Great American Trait

I always think it does a newspaper editor good to get out from behind his desk and see how folks in other parts of America look, and think, and act.

And that's what I've been doing these past weeks, touring the country from Michigan to Texas, California to Maine. It's an encouraging experience. Not only because of the different points of view you run into—but because of the tolerance which recognizes those points of view.

I mean the tolerance of a Mississippi farmer for the habits of his city cousin; the tolerance of folks who believe one way towards those who believe another; the tolerance of those who prefer spring water towards those who enjoy a moderate beverage like beer.

From where I sit, it's that great American trait of tolerance—respect for individual tastes and liberties—that makes this country strong. Let's never lose it.

You Have Obligations After School Security Payments Are Begun

Every person receiving either Federal old-age or survivors insurance payments is required to report certain events which may suspend or stop payments.

Any person receiving a monthly insurance payment who works under social security and earns as much as $15 is required to notify the Social Security Administration. His payment is suspended for the month in which he (or she) works.

Work that is not covered by Federal old age and survivors insurance does not affect the payments. A retired worker, or a young widow receiving payments, may operate a business or do domestic or agricultural work without suspending the monthly insurance payments.

Of course, income from sources other than employment does not affect the right to receive these payments.

Payments to a wife will stop if she is divorced from her husband, and payments to a widow, young or old, will be stopped if she remarries. Notice, however, that if a widow remarries and her payment is stopped, the payments for the children may continue.

A child's payment is suspended if he works and stopped entirely if he is adopted by someone outside his immediate family. A child's payment will also be stopped if he or she marries.

Similar restrictions are imposed on dependent parents receiving monthly insurance payments.

This is the sixth in a series of articles on "Your Social Security." In our next issue we shall discuss, "Your Social Security Card."

For further information consult your local Social Security Administration field office.

Dairy Farmer Recounts Experience Of Entering Business, Found Agent Great Aid

This is the third in a series of reports from the Hancock county soil conservation committee. Last week George Spears recounted his experience of the comparative merits of fescue and oats for grazing.

Mr. Fitzhugh Lee, one of our Commissioners, is with us. Mr. Lee what can you say about dairying?"

Mr. Lee: "In the beginning when the Soil Conservation Service started here I had been trying to grow row crops and dairy to make a living. I had thought I needed some pastures but I didn't know how to go about getting them. I called on the Soil Conservation District through Mr. Bishop and asked him if he would come up and help me work out a farm plan that could work toward. Mr. Bishop came out with a colored map, explained the map to me and we put my place in pasture. I am only growing about 2 1/2 acres of row crops now. The rest is in something for the cows to eat.

To start with in pastures I had some 40 acres of land which was not very much good. I had common Lespedeza sowed on it and never had broke it up or anything. Mr. Bishop talked about pasture and how to fix it and we prepared the land. I planted White Dutch Clover, Dallas Grass and Lespedeza. It is furnishing me plenty good grazing right now. The Dallas Grass was green all through the winter it never did die. I think I am really going to get some good White Clover this year. I had planted some Crimson Clover on oats which had been grazed and had been producing milk. This winter I had doubled in milk production and my cows were at least 75% better than they were last winter. I feed them good hay all the time in addition to them grazing on a pasture. As far as I am concerned now I wouldn't advise anybody to start into the dairy business before setting up pastures. I am trying to tell people this because I nearly went under when I first started by not having pastures. I borrowed all the money I could get and was able to come through the winter. Now I am seeing the light and the light is through pastures.

The time is coming when a farmer is not going to be able to borrow money to set himself up in the dairy business without first setting up his pasture and it should be that way. I can speak from the experience I just told you, I did get through the winter by the hardest and this winter I have done much better. I did even better than I did last summer because the cattle I am now milking are in better condition than they were last summer. Another thing, I would like to state—I was milking 50 head of cows last summer and now I am milking 30 head and getting a little more than double the amount of milk I got from 50 head of cows.

Last year I put all my money in feed for the cows and even at that I lost from 9-10 head of them. This winter I have plenty of pastures and I am buying less than $100.00 worth of feed. My cows are in better shape and I am making more money. I don't know how to put it in words, but there is one thing I can say, my family and I are in much better spirits than we were this time last year. I can say that I know that we are in better health because of our milk. We thoroughly mineralize and fertilize our pastures and I believe that goes right on through the cow and we are perfectly healthy and we all drink plenty of milk. I can thank nobody other than Mr. Bishop and Soil Conservation Service through the District for pulling me out of the red."

Mr. Rester: "We have with us Mr. Frank Shaw, one of our Commissioners and cooperators. Frank what have you got to say?" Mr. Shaw: "Well, Otto, all I have to say is I am proud of the Soil Conservation Service. We worked up a farm plan on my place and I, too, am putting out pasture and doing some dairying. I have some oats and rye grass and Australian Winter Peas and Kudzu as temporary winter grazing. I have established better than 10 acres of permanent pasture consisting of White Dutch Clover, Dallas Grass and Lespedeza. I figured that from the first of February until the last of May during those four months, less the feed bill,

I got more milk and it netted me $14.00 per day for my grazing. I would like for you to understand, though, I fertilized this heavy. Another thing, I would like for you to know, when I started in the cattle business I borrowed $2400.00 and bought my cattle and from August to January 16th I paid the loan down to $1592.00 from profits made from the cattle. In addition to this I was paying a man $100.00 per month. About this Kudzu patch I was talking about, I had 17 acres of Kudzu planted and I really expect it to help next summer and fall for late grazing.

Mr. Rester: "Mr. Hoda, you are a Commissioner. What has the District done for you?"

Mr. Hoda: "As yet I haven't gotten my pasture in. I had 17 acres of land terraced recently and intend to put in my pasture this winter. I know from the experience you other fellows have had it is going to pay me to get it established. I have put out some $3,000 or more pine seedlings on my farm."

Mr. Rester: "We have another cooperator with us, Mr. Melvin Shaw. What have you to say Mr. Shaw?"

Mr. Shaw: "Well, I would like to state that I have got my terracing work up according to the Soil Conservation plan that I have and have cut my hardwoods out of the swamp like Mr. Bishop said. I am doing timber stand improvement work by cutting out the limby, burshet trees and allowing the better ones to grow in pine."

Mr. Rester: "Fellows, we have with us one of the old settlers of our county, Uncle Joe Shaw. Uncle Joe, you are not a cooperator with us but we would like to hear from you. Uncle Joe, how old are you?" Mr. Shaw: "I am 71 years old and I have a lot of land out there that I want a farm plan on where it will be left in a better condition for my grandbabies than it was when I got it. I want to ask you boys to help me get on my place just what you have been talking about."

I don't have a farm yet but I want one and want to know just how quick I can get it. I have about 200 head of cattle and I don't know how many acres of land but I have plenty. I realize from what has been said that these other men have had plenty of success with pastures and I want Mr. Bishop to help me plan my farm so that I can make a success of my farm and plans for a pasture."

The News of the Little Theatre

Grandpa says "YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU", so why bother to make money! Ergo, 35 years ago he stopped working, and started doing all the things in life he wanted to do. Grandpa doesn't approve of the income tax so he doesn't pay it, of course, Uncle Sam sends his men to see Grandpa. Mrs. Sycamore, Penny, writes plays and paints, and is a darling. She's Grandpa's daughter, her husband, Paul, makes firecrackers! One daughter takes dancing, and makes candy. The other daughter takes dictation and makes love.

However, if you think that we are going to tell you all about this wonderful, zany, Sycamore family and their friends, you're wrong, because you must meet them personally at the Little Theatre. They will all be there for four consecutive nights to delight you with their unconventional mode of life, and to have you join them in the sheer fun of living, just as you desire to live.

This show is going to run four nights instead of the usual three. We hope the additional performance will give every one a chance to see it, and be sure of a seat. It will play the nights of June 29-30, July 1-2, so be sure not to miss it. If you are not a member of the theatre, you can buy a ticket at the door.

At a recent meeting of the Executive board it was decided that from now on all shows will run a minimum of four nights, and if the audiences continue to grow, they will play for a full week. There is still time to take a membership as four more plays will be produced this year. A membership cost $5.00, and entitles one to a share in the Theatre. It also gives the right to vote on Oscars as well as on all matters pertaining to the running of the Theatre. Admission at the door cost $1.00 plus 20% federal tax, therefore, it would be to your advantage, and yet would cost no more, to take out a membership for the remainder of the year.

Tryouts will be held at the parish house of the Episcopal church Monday, June 27 at 8:00 p. m. for the forthcoming production, "Life With Father."

Due to unfortunate circumstances, Mrs. John Bell who was scheduled to direct this play is unable to do so, however, Mrs. Walter Rausch, talented newcomer in the theatre will handle the direction, and it is hoped that there will be a large number to come for this casting.

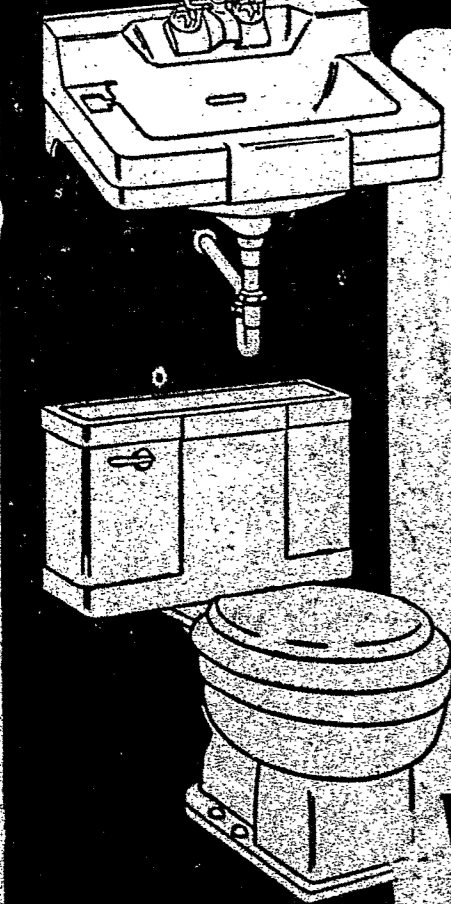

The play is clever comedy and centers around the life of father, mother, and their four flaming haired sons.

Members of the theatre and residents of Bay St. Louis who patronize the theatre are urged to attend the performances on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings thereby allowing weekend guests to see the show on Saturday nights.

THE PROOF OF THE PIE IS IN THE

Modern bakeries and restaurants all over the Gulf South rely on natural gas to fuel their ovens. Natural gas provides clean heat which may be applied directly in such operations as baking, food dehydration, rice-drying and canning. Direct application means accurate control and maximum efficiency—which are two excellent reasons for using natural gas in all such processes. Delivery of low-cost natural gas to commercial and small industrial plants is one of many functions of the companies which make up the natural gas industry...all of which have the ultimate purpose of assuring a continued dependable supply of natural gas to their customers.

Natural gas provides instant heat, with no waiting for a "warm-up". It's clean, extremely flexible, perfectly controllable.

A turn of a valve provides all the fuel required to do the job. No need for costly storage facilities. It's always there, ready to serve.

Savings effected by natural gas consumers are important factors in a profitable operation.

REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

home as being necessary for the health, comfort and convenience of the students and the teachers of said school district, the said petition being as follows, to-wit:

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF HARRISON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI:

The undersigned, being a majority of the qualified electors residing in the Deaneau Consolidated School District respectfully show unto you your honor as follows:

1. That the Deaneau Consolidated School District is a Harrison-Hancock County Line Consolidated School District composed of territory lying in the two counties of Harrison and Hancock, in the State of Mississippi.

2. That the Deaneau Consolidated School District is badly in need of a school building and repairs to school buildings and to the teachers' home, which are necessary for the health, comfort and convenience of the students and teachers of said school and should be provided as soon as is reasonably possible and practicable.

3. That the labor and material to provide such building and repairs and equipment will cost $13,500.00 above the amount of funds available for that purpose and it is necessary and to the best interest of said school district that negotiable bonds of said district be issued in an amount not to exceed $13,500.00 in the manner provided by law.

Wherefore, the undersigned respectfully petition your Honor to issue and sell negotiable bonds of said school district in an amount not to exceed $13,500.00 for the aforesaid purpose or providing funds to pay for labor and material necessary to replace roof on school building; provide in-door toilets and other necessary repairs to school buildings and to the teachers' home, and to erect a school building which may be used as a gymnasium; such bonds to be issued under the provisions of Section 6370 and Section 6533 of the Mississippi Code of 1942 and laws amendatory thereof.

Respectfully submitted
and having duly examined and considered the aforesaid petition, and having duly investigated and examined the signatures and examined the registration list of the qualified electors residing in that area of the said school district being and which lie in Harrison County, Mississippi, the Board finds that more than fifty per cent (50%) and in fact, the overwhelming majority, of the qualified electors residing in the Harrison County portion of the said school district, have signed said petition requesting the issuance of the said bond in the amount and for the purposes aforesaid;

And the Board further finds that the said school district is a legally established and existing consolidated line school district, organized, created and established as by law provided, and that the amount of said bond issue will not exceed the constitutional and statutory limitations prescribed by law, and that the said bonds are being issued for purposes authorized by law as set forth in Section 6370, Mississippi Code of 1942;

And the Board further finds that the proportionate amount of the proposed bond issue to be borne by Harrison County, Mississippi, is Six Thousand Six Hundred Fifty-Four Dollars ($6,654.00), and that by Hancock County is Six Thousand Eight Hundred Forty-Six Dollars ($6,846.00), the said amounts being based on the assessed valuation of property in each county lying and being within the school district, the assessed value of property lying and being in Harrison County being Fifty-Five Thousand Nine Hundred Fifty-Five Dollars ($55,955.00), and in Hancock County Forty-seven Thousand and Two Hundred Thirty Dollars ($47,230.00), as shown by the certified statements of the county superintendents of education on file with this Board, which certifies that the Board finds and adjudicates to be correct;

And the Board further finds that under the law, and particularly Section 6533 of the Mississippi Code of 1942, the Board of Supervisors of the county which furnishes the larger assessed and value of property shall issue the bonds of the said line school district, and that said bonds shall be the general obligations of the entire school district without reference to county lines, and shall constitute a lien upon all the taxable property in said school district.

It is therefore ordered by the Board of Supervisors of Harrison County, Mississippi, that the aforesaid petition for the issuance of bonds of the Deaneau Consolidated School District be, and it hereby is, granted and approved; and that a certified copy of this order be mailed to the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Mississippi; and that said Board be requested in its discretion to issue the said bonds in denominations of $500.00 each, with maturities over a period of twenty (20) years, the first thirteen bonds maturing one each year for the first thirteen (13) years, and that two of the said bonds mature in each of the succeeding years through the twentieth year, it being considered that possibly a 15 mill levy will suffice to meet the funding requirements of the proposed bond issue.

Ordered this 14th day of March, A. D. 1949.
The State of Mississippi,
County of Harrison.

I, C. J. Darby, Clerk of the Chancery Court, and ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in and for the County and State aforesaid, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing transcript is a true and correct copy of an order passed by the Board of Supervisors, and entered at their March Term, A. D. 1949, on the 14th day of March, 1949, as fully and completely as the same appears of record in my office, in Board of Supervisors' Minute Book 47, on pages 120-122.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Board of Supervisors, at my office in Gulfport, Miss., this 14th day of March, 1949.

Be It Therefore Ordered, by the Board that the aforesaid order be received, filed, and adopted, and that the Clerk of this Board, do all things necessary to complete said bond issue.

In The Matter of the Sellers Consolidated Line School District
Bond Issue
Whereas, a Petition for the issuance of $15,000.00 Bonds for the Sellers Consolidated Line School District has been filed with this Board as shown in Minute Book R Page 406, Minutes of the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Mississippi;

Whereas, this being a Line School, and the Supervisors of Harrison County having certified to this Board their willingness to go along with Hancock County in issuing said Bonds, and more completely described in the following words and figures:
There came on for consideration by the Board of Supervisors of Harrison County the petition of the qualified electors of the Sellers Consolidated School District residing in Harrison County, Mississippi, said petition praying for a line school embracing land lying in Harrison and Hancock Counties, requesting the issuance of bonds of said school district in the amount of $15,000.00 for the purpose of providing funds needed to construct educational buildings, namely, cafeteria, classroom and gymnasium, said petition being as follows, to-wit:
State of Mississippi
County of Hancock
To The Honorable Board of Supervisors of Harrison County:
Petition for Bond Issue in Sellers Consolidated Line School District

We, the undersigned qualified electors of the Sellers Consolidated High School, a line school comprised of territory in Hancock and Harrison Counties, do hereby petition the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Mississippi, to issue bonds for the purpose of constructing additional buildings, namely, Cafeteria, Classroom and Gymnasium.
Respectfully submitted,
ELECTORS OF HARRISON COUNTY

In Said Sellers Consolidated School District and having duly examined, investigated and considered the aforesaid petition, and particularly the signatures thereto and the registration list of the voters residing in that portion of said school district lying in Harrison County, the Board hereby finds and adjudicates that more than fifty per cent and an overwhelming majority of the qualified electors of said school district residing in Harrison County signed the said petition requesting the issuance of the said bonds in the amount and for the purposes aforesaid; and the Board further finds and adjudicates that the said school district is a legally established and existing consolidated school district, and that the amount of the proposed bond issue will not exceed the constitutional and statutory limitations prescribed by law; and that the said bonds may be issued under the authority of Section 6370, Mississippi Code of 1942, and act amendatory thereto; and the Board further finds that under the law, and particularly Section 6533 of the Mississippi Code of 1942, that the said bonds will have to be issued by the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, for the reason that Hancock County furnishes and has the larger assessed valuation of property of the said line school district, the assessed value of the property lying in Hancock County being $77,770.00; whereas, that lying in Harrison County is only $31,585.00, as shown by the certified statements of the county superintendents of education of both counties on file with this Board; and the Board further finds that the said bonds when issued shall be the general obligations of the entire Sellers Consolidated School District, without reference to county lines, and shall constitute a lien upon all the taxable property of said school district.

It is therefore ordered by the Board of Supervisors of Harrison County, Mississippi, that the petition of the qualified electors of the Sellers Consolidated School District residing in Harrison County, be, and it is, granted and approved, and that the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County be, and it hereby is, requested to proceed with and take such action as may be necessary to the issuance of Bonds of the Sellers Consolidated School District, a line school, in the amount of $15,000.00.
- It is Further Ordered that the Clerk of this Board be, and he hereby is, directed to send a certified copy of this order to the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County.
Ordered this 8th day of April, A. D. 1949.
The State of Mississippi,
County of Harrison.

I, C. J. Darby, Clerk of the Chancery Court, and ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in and for the County and State aforesaid, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing transcript is a true and correct copy of an order passed by the Board of Supervisors, and entered at their April Term, A. D. 1949, on the 8th day of April, 1949, as fully and completely as the same appears of record in my office, in Board of Supervisors' Minute Book 47, on pages 126-128.

AMERICANISM VERSUS SOCIALISM

History teaches us that after every major war there is considerable social, political and economic unrest in the countries affected. America is no exception. Members of Congress are constantly being bombarded with propaganda, in the aftermath of this latest World War. Some of it is good and some of it is bad; some is designed to inform and some is designed to deceive. The following statement, from Mr. Thurman Sensing, director of research, Southern States Industrial Council, Nashville, Tenn., seems to be worthy of consideration. Mr. Sensing writes:

"I have just returned from an eight weeks visit to Great Britain, where I studied at first hand the results of a socialist government in action and observed its effects upon the freedom and the economy of the people.

"After four years of peace, I found the people of Great Britain still suffering under rationing and price control. Even so, prices of staples are relatively high and luxuries are out of the question. Their diet is even worse in some respects than it was during the war. Goods in the shops are scarce and quality is poor. The cost of living continues high. Taxation has reached a point where it is almost unbearable, and if continued will inevitably ruin the Nation. Production in the factories per man hour is low. The cost of manufactured goods is such that they can not compete in the markets of the world on a price basis. The people, in effect, are prisoners on their own 'tight little isle,' only a limited number being permitted to travel abroad each year, and each of this number only being allowed to spend a maximum sum of $140 for the purpose.

"The predicament of that once proud nation is unquestionably the result of state control imposed upon the people by the Socialist Government when it came into power four years ago. The wastefulness and bungling and inefficiency of the Government in operating the key industries which it has thus far nationalized have resulted in enormous losses which have had to be paid for out of the taxpayers' pockets. The political entanglements brought on through bulk buying by the government in the markets of the world have also cost the taxpayers enormous sums of money, and have at the same time resulted in less food for the people and higher costs for raw materials for their factories. The 'free' welfare benefits promised the people by the socialist government through a policy of soaking to rich' have cost far more than was 'planned.' The 'free' health service for instance, was 'planned' to cost $680 million the first year; it actually cost $1,040 million. Great Britain was in no position to afford any such benefits, and they could by no means have been provided without aid from the United States—aid, by the way, that was created by private enterprise.

"The wealth of Great Britain has been redistributed all right, and with a vengeance, but the nation is no better off than when the policy was adopted. And now, after four years of such redistribution, the socialist government itself has had to tell the people there is no further possibility of tax income from this source, that any extension of benefits, will have to be paid for by the individuals, who receive it, by the people themselves. What disillusionment—when the people had been led to believe there was no end to the benefits they could obtain in this manner.

"Are we in the United States learning the lesson that the experience of Great Britain is teaching us? That is a serious question—and upon the answer depends the future welfare of this nation and its people. Don't tell the industrialists of Great Britain that it can't happen here! They will laugh at you. They will tell you that if anyone had told them ten years ago, or as late as five years ago, that they would now be living under the kind of government they have, they would have said he was crazy. 'For God's sake,' they told me time and again, 'don't let socialism get started in the United States of America.' You are our last great hope for the preservation of freedom in the world. Don't let the socialist camel get his head into the tent of free enterprise. There's not room enough for both of them."

We will do well to remember this warning whenever measures are presented proposing that the government do for us what we should be doing for ourselves. We should avoid the 'planned economy' and the 'welfare state' like we would avoid the plague. They may sound good on paper, but they only lead to stagnation and ruin."

PRESTO! A BAR!

Next time your husband clutters up the kitchen with his bottles, ice buckets and glasses, give him a surprise instead of a scolding. By dragging out the old faithful ironing board and covering it with the new plastic Snack-a-Board, he can have his own serving bar right in the living room. This smart, transformable, liquid-proof and colorful, is pictured in the July issue of House Beautiful.

WARMTH ON WHEELS

The Robert Stantons, of Carmel, California, don't believe that a sudden chill in the weather should break up a gay outdoor party. They light charcoal fires in metal wheelbarrows and move them around where they're needed. The July issue of House Beautiful magazine devotes 42 pages to the fabulous conveniences of the Stanton way of life.

Plan Safe, Sane, Savory Fourth

Too many Fourth of July meals leave Mother wondering why in the world it's called Independence Day. The combination of summer heat, feverish dinner preparations and fire-crackers outside the kitchen window can make her feel like anything but a free American by the time the Star-Spangled Banner is sung.

With the idea of sparing the mother the role of a martyr, the editors of Good Housekeeping magazine present several Independent Day menus in their July issue. Here's the one they call "A Family Affair," possibly because it's fair to everyone in the family—INCLUDING MOTHER.

Cold Sliced Roast Beef
Whole Red Ripe Tomatoes
Hot Corn on the Cob
Potato Chips
Rye Bread and Butter
A Slice Each
Blueberry Pie, Cherry Pie

PICNIC STYLE. Baskets especially designed for carrying pies are now on the market. Or serve Devil's Food Cake and a bowl of chilled ripe cherries. Carry corn in pot in which you'll cook it.

TIME SCHEDULE. PIES: Make, but don't bake day before; chill in refrigerator. Then bake on day of picnic. (TOMATOES: Take a shaker each of celery, garlic, and onion salt for them. CORN: Take soft butter and pastry brush to paint it on. RYE BREAD: Slice thickly at home, wrap in waxed paper; or slice at picnic.

ROAST BEEF

Buy 3 to 8-lb. rolled rib roast. A 2-rib rolled roast serves 4 at least 2 meals. A 3-rib rolled roast serves 6 at least 2 meals.

At 325 Degrees F.

Roll Rib (3 to 5 lbs.)
(Wgt. after boning and rolling)
Rare 31 to 36 minutes
Medium 36 to 40 minutes
Well done 38 to 43 minutes
Roll Rib (5 to 8 lbs.)
Rare 27 to 32 minutes
Medium 32 to 36 minutes
Well done 38 to 43 minutes

Place on wire in shallow, uncovered pan. Insert meat thermometer if you have one. Add no water. Do not baste.
Roast at 325 degrees F., as above; or to 140 degrees on thermometer for rare, 160 degrees F. for medium, and 170 degrees F. for well done.
Cool; chill without carving. On day of picnic, slice, salt, put back together. Wrap tightly in waxed paper.

STATE LAUNCHES ITS BIGGEST PROGRAM TO ATTRACT TOURISTS

Mississippi's bid for a share of the $12,000,000,000 annual tourist industry in the United States is receiving an ever-increasing acceptance through the press and on the part of the travel-minded public, records of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board show.

During the past four years the Agricultural Board has conducted a steadily growing program of advertising, publicity and promotion to attract its share of this "big business," but in the next two years an all-out effort to attract tourists will be waged by this Mississippi agency.

The Board now has a comprehensive program underway to bring before the public the scenic, historic and recreational attractions of the "Magnolia State."

In December of this year, for instance, column and half page advertisements on the state's tourist advantages will be carried in national magazines and newspapers with a combined circulation of 21,015,598. Most of these publications are read by people who are definitely interested in travel.

Some of the magazines being used, for instance, are National Geographic, Holiday, American, Automobile Club magazines, Travel, Time, plus special travel sections conducted by leading newspapers of the nation.

To further emphasize the state's attractions, the Board prepares special illustrated articles and publicity releases which are submitted regularly to the publications in which it advertises.

Some of the regularly prepared articles, the Board supplies information and photographs to publishers of encyclopedias, yearbooks, trade journals, sports magazines, and a host of other writers, calendar manufacturers and scores of other book publishers whose material covers Mississippi subjects.

Travel Tours

One feature of the Mississippi tourist promotion program is the sponsoring of annual travel editor's tours. Each year editors, writers and Automobile Club representatives are invited to tour the state and acquaint themselves with its vacation possibilities.

Thousands of dollars worth of publicity and an ever-increasing flow of tourists routed through the state by these representatives result from these tours.

As a result of this year's tour, one editor alone has accounted for 10 stories on the editorial page of his paper, the Boston Globe. This year's tour, the Board has written a three column article on Mississippi daily for 10 days and has additional articles scheduled for future editions in dollars and cents this one paper has contributed $2,372.80 in free space to Mississippi.

Literature

With more than 100 requests for tourist information coming in daily, the Board is constantly preparing Mississippi literature for distribution throughout the nation.

SWIFT STEAMER

Picnickers who like clams without clamor will salute a new, portable clam steamer which handles two necks of the succulent seafood in one steaming. It's an indoor-outdoor beach fire, back-yard grill, or kitchen stove. When the clams are done, it will steam corn enough for the hungriest crowd. See it in the July issue of House Beautiful.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all the relatives and friends of the family of Bay St. Louis and New Orleans for their sympathy on the sudden death of our son and brother. We also wish to thank Fahey's Funeral Home, Rev. Charles Johnson, Dr. Wolfe and the teachers at the Lakeshore school. Many thanks for the floral offerings. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Fricke and family.

DRIVERS LICENSES TO EXPIRE JUNE 30 HAVE YOURS RENEWED

Colonel T. B. Birdsong, commissioner of public safety says on June 30th, a large percentage of our driver's license will expire. So check your license now if they expire on June 30, 1949. Renew them at once for there is no grace period.

According to the records in the drivers license bureau over 25% of the people in Mississippi have failed to renew their license. Not only highway patrolmen, but all law enforcement officers in Mississippi are working together in an effort to reduce accidents and traffic violations; also checking vehicles for defects. If you are stopped for a violation or just an inspection, the first thing the enforcement officer checks is your driver's license, and an expired drivers license is the same as no license and is one thing there is no warning for.

Says Birdsong further: We are not interested in writing tickets and therefore urge all motorists who drive to keep their drivers license current and up-to-date and with you when driving.

You can renew your license at any sheriff or city clerk's office, or at patrol headquarters in Jackson, 2550 North State Street. Cost $1.00 for in be sure and send $1.00, giving your two years. If you mail your license correct name and address and if a lady and married since previous license was issued give maiden and married name.

We urge the cooperation of the motoring public, not only with reference to Drivers License but all our driving laws.

Need Two Sprays To Control Flies Etomologist Says

Two kinds of sprays, used alternately, are recommended to control the unusually large numbers of flies which have been reported this season even where a spray has been applied, according to L. C. Murphree, Extension entomologist.

Poor fly control with DDT has been reported from all over the state, Mr. Murphree said. Methoxy-chlor, a "cousin" of DDT, has in many cases given control for only a short time, he added.

Where DDT or methoxychlor alone have failed, make one spraying with either benzene hexachloride or chlordane, Mr. Murphree advised. After the fly population begins to build up again, come back to a spraying with either DDT or methoxychlor. Alternate from one kind of spray to another as necessary.

No one insecticide is going to give complete fly control, Mr. Murphree said.

"It has been proven by research entomologists that flies have built up a resistance to DDT. It has also been proven that flies can build up resistance to other materials if used over a long period of time," the entomologist stated.

Sanitation along with the use of insecticides is also necessary for fly control, especially during rainy weather, the entomologist pointed out.

Manure from livestock should be hauled out and scattered regularly. If this is not done, manure piles should be sprayed to kill fly maggots, using borax dissolved at the rate of approximately four ounces to three gallons of water.

Sprays suitable for fly control in an alternating spray program are prepared as follows:

DDT should be used at the rate of one pound, or four cupfuls by measure, of 50 percent wettable powder to three gallons of water.

Methoxychlor should be used at a two percent spray, made by mixing one pound, or four cupfuls by measure, of 50 percent wettable material to three gallons of water. This spray is safer than DDT to use around dairy barns and on dairy cattle.

One pound, or three cupfuls by measure, of six percent gamma benzene hexachloride wettable powder to three gallons of water is satisfactory for use in a fly control program. If 12 percent gamma benzene hexachloride is used, mix one-half pound to three gallons of water.

Chlordane should be used at the rate of one pound, or three cupfuls by measure, of the 50 percent wettable powder to three gallons of water.

It is possible to go through the summer without flies if sanitation is practiced along with an alternating spray program," Mr. Murphree stated.

Cooperation Is Key To Safety

Says Colonel T. B. Birdsong, commissioner of public safety: "We are again approaching another one of those long week-ends, the Fourth of July, and expect more people on our highways and streets during these few days than during any other period of the year. We will have every available officer of the patrol, including our driver license examiners patrolling the highways. These officers will be working extra hours, and doing everything possible to prevent accidents, and for the safety of all motorists."

Says Birdsong further: We urge all who walk or drive to do so within caution. Take a little more time to get where you are going. Leave a little earlier. We urge pedestrians to be especially careful in crossing streets and highways and walking on the highway and streets.

Looking over the record in Mississippi for the past two years we find that in 1947 for the day of the Fourth of July there were one killed and seven injured.

1948, Fourth of July. One killed, thirteen injured. For the four day Holiday Period in 1947 there were seven killed and thirty two injured. For the four day period in 1948 there were six killed and twenty-seven injured. These accidents were caused by a number of serious violations consisting of:

Drinking Drivers
Speeding
Failure to grant right-of-way
Following too closely
Passing on curve
On wrong side of road
Failure to signal
Improper turn, and turning from wrong lane
Disregard stop sign
Disregard Warning sign
Hit and run involving two Pedestrians

Says Birdsong further: Let us all resolve to make this a deathless holiday period for Mississippi, and be alive on the morning of July 5th.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter James Phillips announce the birth of a son at the Kings Daughters Hospital on Wednesday, June 15, and Mr. Phillips is stepping high these days. Mother and child are fine. The young man, the first child, has been given the name of Carey James.
